Study Questions and Answers

Here are some thought-provoking questions along with answers to help guide your study of Ephesians.

1. What is the significance of Paul's greeting in Ephesians 1:1-2?

Answer: Paul introduces himself as an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, which establishes the authority of his message. The greeting also indicates that the letter is addressed to the saints in Ephesus, highlighting the identity of the recipients as holy and set apart for God's purposes.

2. What does Paul mean by "spiritual blessings" in Ephesians 1:3?

Answer: In this verse, Paul emphasizes that believers are blessed with every spiritual blessing in Christ. This includes salvation, the indwelling of the Holy Spirit, and the promise of eternal life. These blessings are not material but pertain to the believer's relationship with God and their identity in Christ.

3. How does Ephesians 2:8-9 explain salvation?

Answer: These verses clarify that salvation is a gift from God, received through faith, and not a result of works. This teaching stresses that no one can boast about their salvation, reinforcing the concept of grace as central to the Christian faith.

4. What is the purpose of the Church according to Ephesians 3:10-11?

Answer: Paul states that the Church exists to make known the manifold wisdom of God. The Church serves as a reflection of God's glory and an instrument through which God's purposes are fulfilled in the world.

5. What instructions does Paul give regarding Christian behavior in Ephesians 4:1-3?

Answer: Paul urges believers to live a life worthy of their calling by demonstrating humility, gentleness, patience, and love. He emphasizes the importance of maintaining unity in the Spirit, which is essential for the health of the Church.

6. How does Ephesians 5:22-33 address the topic of marriage?

Answer: In this passage, Paul compares the relationship between Christ and the Church to that of a husband and wife. He instructs husbands to love their wives sacrificially, as Christ loved the Church, and encourages wives to respect their husbands. This passage emphasizes mutual love and respect as foundational to a healthy marriage.

7. What is the significance of the "armor of God" in Ephesians 6:10-18?

Answer: The "armor of God" serves as a metaphor for the spiritual resources available to believers. Paul lists various components, such as the belt of truth and the shield of faith, which represent essential virtues and tools for standing firm in spiritual battles. This imagery highlights the reality of spiritual warfare and the need for believers to be equipped to resist temptation and opposition.
