Verb Worksheets

Verb worksheets are designed to teach students about action words. These worksheets often include fill-in-the-blank sentences where children must choose the correct verb to complete the sentence. This practice is essential for improving sentence fluency and understanding verb tenses.

Punctuation Worksheets

Punctuation worksheets help first graders learn about the importance of punctuation marks such as periods, commas, question marks, and exclamation points. Activities can include correcting sentences that lack proper punctuation or choosing the correct punctuation mark based on the context of a sentence.
