Understanding Special Cargo

Special Cargo involves acquiring and selling various rare items that can be sourced through your own warehouse. Unlike regular vehicle missions, Special Cargo allows players to deal in unique items that can fetch a high price on the market. The process involves purchasing a Warehouse and participating in missions to stock it, ultimately selling the cargo at a profit.

- Before you can start dealing in Special Cargo, you must own a warehouse. To purchase one, follow these steps:
- Access the in-game smartphone.
- Navigate to the Maze Bank Foreclosures website.
- Choose a warehouse from the list and purchase it.

2. Become a CEO:

3. Start the Special Cargo Missions:

- After becoming a CEO, you can initiate Special Cargo missions by accessing the "SecuroServ" option from the Interaction Menu.

Acquiring Special Cargo

Once you have your warehouse and have registered as a CEO, you can begin acquiring Special Cargo. The process involves missions that can yield various types of cargo.

Types of Special Cargo

The cargo you can acquire typically falls into two categories:

- Crates: These are the most common type of Special Cargo and can contain various items, from electronics to art pieces.
- Vehicles: Occasionally, you may also acquire special vehicles, which can be sold for a higher profit than crates.

How to Acquire the Cargo

To acquire Special Cargo, follow these steps:

1. Access the Warehouse:
 - Once you are registered as a CEO, access your warehouse through the SecuroServ menu.
2. Purchase Cargo:
 - Select the "Buy Special Cargo" option. You will be presented with several missions that involve sourcing cargo from different locations.
3. Complete the Mission:
 - Completing these missions typically involves retrieving cargo from rival gang operations or transporting it from one location to another.

Managing Your Special Cargo

After acquiring cargo, managing it efficiently is crucial for maximizing profits. Here are some tips to keep in mind:

Warehouse Capacity

Each warehouse has a specific capacity, and managing this capacity is essential for efficiency:

- Small Warehouse: Holds up to 16 crates.
- Medium Warehouse: Holds up to 42 crates.
- Large Warehouse: Holds up to 111 crates.

To maximize your profits, consider investing in a large warehouse if you plan to deal with high volumes of cargo.

Stocking Your Warehouse

- Stock Up: Regularly complete missions to keep your warehouse stocked.
- Avoid Over-Capacity: Selling your cargo before reaching capacity can help prevent loss from rival players.

Selling Special Cargo

Selling your Special Cargo is where you'll see your profits. However, it requires careful planning and execution.

How to Sell Special Cargo

1. Check Your Stock:

- Before selling, check how much cargo you have in your warehouse. The more you have, the higher your potential profit.

2. Initiate the Sale:

- Access your warehouse and select the "Sell Special Cargo" option. You will have the choice to sell it in bulk or individually.

3. Choose Your Delivery Method:

- Depending on the quantity, you may have to deliver to multiple locations.

Maximizing Your Profit

- Sell in Bulk: It's typically more profitable to sell larger quantities at once.
- Avoid Rivals: Be prepared for rival players trying to intercept your deliveries. Consider working with others to fend them off.
- Timing is Key: Choose times to sell when the server is less populated to reduce the risk of being attacked.
