Understanding MLA Citation Style

MLA citation style is widely used in the humanities, particularly in literature, philosophy, and the arts. The purpose of MLA citation is to provide clear and consistent guidelines for citing sources, allowing readers to locate the original materials easily. Here are some key features of MLA citation style:

Core Principles

1. Author: Always start with the author's last name, followed by a comma and the first name.
2. Title of Source: The title of the book should be italicized. If it's part of a larger work, the title should be in quotation marks.
3. Publisher: Include the name of the publisher.
4. Publication Date: Provide the year the book was published.
5. Medium of Publication: Indicate the format, such as Print or eBook. For eBooks, specify the platform if necessary.
6. Location: For online sources, include the URL or DOI if applicable.

Structure of an eBook Citation

The general structure for citing an eBook in MLA format is as follows:

- Author Last Name, First Name. Title of Book. Publisher, Year of Publication. Name of eBook Platform, URL or DOI if applicable.

How to Cite Different Types of eBooks

When citing eBooks, it's essential to recognize that there are various formats and platforms available. Below are examples of how to cite different types of eBooks in MLA format.

Citing an eBook from a Specific Platform

If the eBook is available in a non-specific format, the citation may look like this:

Citing an Edited eBook

For edited eBooks, the citation should include the editor's name:

- Brown, Lisa, editor. Anthology of Modern Poetry. HarperCollins, 2018. eBook.

Citing an eBook with Multiple Authors

When citing an eBook with multiple authors, list the first author followed by "et al." for additional authors:

General Guidelines

1. Title: Center the title "Works Cited" at the top of the page.
2. Double-spacing: Ensure that all entries are double-spaced.
3. Hanging Indent: Use a hanging indent for each citation, meaning that the first line is flush left, and subsequent lines are indented.
4. Alphabetical Order: Arrange your citations alphabetically by the author's last name.
5. Consistent Font: Use a legible font, such as Times New Roman, size 12.
