Step-by-Step Guide to Drawing Laurel Burch Cats

Now that you have your materials ready, let's dive into the step-by-step process of drawing your own Laurel Burch cat.

Step 1: Sketch the Basic Shape

Start by lightly sketching the basic shapes of your cat. Use simple geometric forms to construct the head, body, and limbs.

1. Head: Draw a large circle for the head.
2. Body: Add an oval shape for the body, slightly elongated.
3. Ears: Draw pointed triangles on top of the head for the ears.
4. Tail: Sketch a long, curved line for the tail.

Step 2: Add Facial Features

Once you have the basic shapes, it's time to add details to the face.

1. Eyes: Draw large, expressive eyes. Laurel Burch often used exaggerated sizes. Consider adding unique shapes—like hearts or stars—to the pupils.
2. Nose: A small triangle works well for the nose.
3. Mouth: Create a simple line for the mouth with a slight curve to give your cat a playful expression.
4. Whiskers: Add a few lines extending from the sides of the nose.

Step 3: Define the Body and Add Patterns

Next, refine the body shape and start incorporating patterns.

1. Outline: Use your black fine-line marker to outline the cat's body, ears, and tail.
2. Patterns: Fill the body with various patterns. Here are some ideas:
 - Swirls
 - Dots
 - Zigzags
 - Floral designs

Be creative; the more unique patterns you add, the more your cat will resemble a Laurel Burch creation.

Step 4: Color Your Cat

Now comes the fun part—adding color!

1. Choose Your Palette: Select a vibrant color palette. Don't shy away from bold combinations.
2. Base Colors: Start by applying a base color to the body. You can use watercolor or acrylic paints.
3. Layering: Once the base color is dry, add layers of other colors to create depth. For instance, use lighter shades to highlight and darker shades for shadows.

4. Patterns: Use colored pencils or markers to fill in the patterns you created earlier. Different colors can bring out the designs beautifully.

Step 5: Final Touches

After the painting is complete, take a step back and evaluate your work.

1. Details: Add any additional details that enhance the overall look, such as highlights in the eyes or more intricate patterns.
2. Background: Consider adding a simple background with complementary colors or patterns to make your cat pop.
3. Signature: Don't forget to sign your artwork!
