Step-by-Step Guide to Drawing Phineas

Phineas Flynn is characterized by his triangular head, big eyes, and upbeat personality. Here's how to draw him step by step:

Step 1: Draw the Head

Start by sketching a large triangle for Phineas's head. The bottom tip should point downwards, while the wider part will be the forehead.

Step 2: Add Facial Features

- Eyes: Draw two large circles for the eyes, positioned towards the top of the triangle. Inside each circle, add smaller circles for the pupils.
- Mouth: Below the eyes, draw a wide smile. Add a small line above the smile to create his upper lip.
- Nose: Draw a small, curved line just above the mouth to represent the nose.

Step 3: Draw the Hair

Phineas has a distinctive spiky hairstyle. To create this, draw several jagged lines extending from the top of the triangle to form his hair.

Step 4: Add the Body

- Torso: From the base of the triangle, draw two vertical lines downwards to form the torso.
- Arms and Legs: For the arms, draw two thin rectangles extending outwards from the torso. For the legs, draw two rectangles downwards.

Step 5: Clothing Details

- Shirt: Add short sleeves to the arms and draw a horizontal line across the torso to represent the bottom of his shirt.
- Shorts: Draw a line across the legs to indicate where the shorts end.

Step 6: Final Touches

Go over your pencil lines with a black fine-tip marker or pen. Once the ink is dry, erase any visible pencil marks. Finally, color Phineas with his signature orange hair, a green shirt, and blue shorts.

Step-by-Step Guide to Drawing Ferb

Now that you've mastered Phineas, it's time to draw his stepbrother, Ferb Fletcher. Ferb is characterized by his tall, slender frame and distinctive green hair. Here's how to draw him:

Start with an elongated oval shape for Ferb's head, slightly narrower at the bottom.

Step 2: Add Facial Features

- Mouth: Below the eyes, draw a simple horizontal line to create Ferb's neutral expression.
- Nose: Add a small curved line for the nose, positioned slightly above the mouth.

Step 3: Draw the Hair

Ferb's hair is a distinctive green. Draw a large, spiky shape at the top of his head, extending outwards.

Step 5: Clothing Details
