Understanding French Verbs

French verbs are categorized based on their endings and conjugation patterns. The three main groups of French verbs are:

1. -ER Verbs: The largest group, making up about 90% of all French verbs (e.g., parler - to speak).
2. -IR Verbs: This group includes verbs that end in -ir (e.g., finir - to finish).
3. -RE Verbs: These verbs end in -re (e.g., vendre - to sell).

Each group has its own set of conjugation rules, which can vary significantly. Understanding these categories is crucial for mastering verb conjugation.
