Step-by-Step Guide to Making a Sock Monkey

Now that you have your materials ready, let's get started on the step-by-step process of making a sock monkey.

Step 1: Prepare the Socks

Begin by laying your socks flat on a clean surface. If you're using patterned socks, decide which side of the sock you want to showcase.

1. Cut the First Sock:

- Take one sock and cut off the toe section. The length of the cut will depend on how tall you want your monkey to be, but removing about 3-4 inches is a good start.

- This will be the body of the monkey.

2. Create the Legs and Arms:

- From the same sock, cut two sections (about 4-5 inches) from the remaining sock. These will serve as the legs.

- Next, cut two additional sections (about 5-6 inches) for the arms.

3. Prepare the Second Sock:

- Take your second sock and cut a similar toe section off, which will be used for the monkey's head.

Step 2: Assemble the Monkey's Body

Now it's time to put your sock monkey together!

1. Stuff the Body:

- Turn the sock inside out and fill it with stuffing. Make sure to pack it firmly but not too tight, so it maintains a cuddly shape. Aim for a size that feels comfortable to hold.

2. Shape the Body:

- Once stuffed, sew the open end of the sock closed using a needle and thread. This will form th
